

Extra care housing

Need for extra care housing in the Tandridge District area

Based on population statistics produced by Projecting Older People Population Information

Residential and nursing care homes

Calculated need for residential care home provision in the Tandridge District area, up to 2035

As of January 2024:

The Tandridge District area had a supply of 328 residential care home beds against a 75+ population of 10,500. This provides a prevalence rate of 31.24 beds per 1,000 of the 75+ population.

In comparison, England had a supply of 200,720 residential care home beds against a 75+ population of 5,614,400. This provides a prevalence rate of 35.75 beds per 1,000 of the 75+ population.

This means that the current amount of residential care provision in the Tandridge District area is relatively low in comparison to the England average.

The table below sets out the future local need for additional residential care home beds in

Calculated need for nursing care home provision in Tandridge District area, up to 2035

As of January 2024:

The Tandridge District area had a supply